

NEWS SERVICE

7213
NO. 60

September 27, 1918.

FISHERIES

✓ Hyland & Co., organized by Hyland, Dorney, Moore & O'Leary, will conduct a saltery at Landlock Bay and will pack salmon, codfish, herring etc. They have leased the dock and building belonging to the Standard Copper Mines Co. (Cordova Times)

✓ The Red Cross Packing Co. has been organized at Juneau to can clams. (Juneau Empire)

J. L. Long is starting another cannery at Douglas in connection with the fresh fish industry operated by the Alaska Coast Fish Co. (Juneau Empire)

The Taku Canning Co. will employ a crew all winter to construct a new cannery building and dock from lumber cut by the Juneau Lumber Co., this fall. (Juneau Dispatch)

Frank Cavanaugh and Chas. Switzer expect to open a new cannery in Juneau. (Juneau Dispatch)

Libby-McNeill & Libby are reported to have bought the Carlson cannery at Taku Harbor. (Anchorage Times)

F. C. Johnson of the Alaska Fish Co. states that the report that the cannery at Waterfall was destroyed by fire is untrue and that damages amounted only to about $25.

FOR SERVICE - Two gas boats, carrying capacity about 40 tons each; rate of speed about 8 knots; one boat, carrying capacity about 50 tons; rate of speed about 6 knots. Now available for carrying cargoes, towing scows or barges on Puget Sound. Apply F. Neale, Box X, Ketchikan, Alaska.

LUMBER

A cooperage plant for manufacturing barrels is being installed by Harry Cribb at Anchorage, with a capacity of 3000 barrels per month. (Anchorage Times)

The Columbia Red Metal Mining Co. is installing a sawmill near Valdez. A monorail will be built from the beach to the mine. (Valdez Miner)

The Wilson & Sylvester mill is being rebuilt. (Wrangell Sentinel)

MERCANTILE

A. K. Kempton of Seattle, has purchased the stock of the Dorhman-Herning Hardware Co. (Chitina Leader)

Jos. Fisher of the Fairbanks Clothing Co. has started a branch store at Nenana. (Fairbanks News-Miner)

The Juneau Fruit & Vegetable Market is going out of business. (Juneau Empire)

MINING

Jerome L. Drumheller, Spokane capitalist, has bought a half interest in the Fern-Goodell property on Archangel creek, near Willow creek. (Anchorage Times)

PUBLICATIONS

"The Boys Over There" is a monthly publication started by the Treadwell Co. edited by Employment Agent L. S. Ferris. (Douglas Is. News)

The Ruby Record Citizen announces August 3, as the last date of publication. (Ruby Record Citizen)

MAILS

Dr. Andrew Smith of Portland has been awarded the contract for carrying mail from Kodiak to Unalaska. (Juneau Empire)